Sarah Adler, SSGR, representing a coalition of independent public charter schools of northern NV support AB39, in its entirety, and specifically regarding the provision in Section 1, paragraph 5, sub a and b. which will enable Authority membership by an educator or administrator of a school which might have at one point had an NSPF rating of 3 or below.

One of the members of our coalition is Honors Academy of Literature and it enrolls 225 students. Due to its small n size, a small change in, for example, students with IEPs, may make a large difference in the testing and other measures that lead to the star rating. These schools have a great deal of experience to contribute to the decisions of the SPCSA and it is not helpful to prevent their participation as SPCSAs members.
